from ancient times communities have defined themselves by the stories they tell and the songs they sing about themselves our story our song calls upon the methodist people to join in a soul expedition deep into the heart of our calling journeying afresh into the story of grace and the vocation that god has placed upon us learning to live work pray and play in ways both true to our roots and open to the presence of god in the songs and stories of others pray with our story our song to discover a shared story exploring the richness of god s love and grace to with and for us in christ learning to live by hope for the future and rediscovering our story by celebrating our roots a shared harmony responding by living in a way that draws others to bring their praise to jesus and by longing and working for a world transformed a new song sharing in a soul expedition as we journey with god s spirit to discover the new songs that god is inspiring within among and around us a new chapter rediscovering the gifts of testimony and storytelling as we commit ourselves to hear not only our own voices but the voice of christ amongst those who are marginalised sharing stories of lament hope surprise expectation and festal joy for opening a new chapter in our mission ideal for individual prayer small groups or church devotions this new look handbook offers a broader variety of prayers greater accessibility easy to use prayer prompts guidance to form your own prayers qr codes and links to related online content methodism is serious about worship public and personal since it wants to celebrate the reality of god s presence with god s people that is as methodists understand it with all god s people this volumes focuses on the origins of this theological tradition its foundations key concepts eminent thinkers and historical development the twentieth century saw the spectacular growth of christianity in much of the global south the transformation of mission fields into self governing churches schemes of church union some successful others abortive evolving attitudes to other faiths and significant christian engagement with issues of racial justice and world poverty this book examines the contribution of the methodist missionary society and its predecessors before 1932 to these world changing movements from the remarkable mass conversions in south west china and west africa early in the century to the controversy over grants to liberation movements in the 1970s and 1980s pritchard traces the mms contribution to education health care rural development and social welfare and describes the administration of the societies and the selection and preparation of candidates for missionary service this is a ground breaking study of methodist overseas mission in the twentieth century how it adjusted to changing circumstances including the forced withdrawals from china and burma and developed new initiatives and partnerships including its world church in britain programme which brought missionaries from the younger churches to serve in britain and ireland
